

Day 21 Report – Social Engineering Concepts & Case Studies

Date: 09 July 2025

Module: Introduction to Social Engineering

Mode: Theoretical

Main Focus

Began the Social Engineering module with an overview of psychological manipulation, common attack types, and case studies.

Topics Covered

- What is Social Engineering?
Manipulating human behavior to bypass security.
- Types:
 - Phishing (email scams)
 - Pretexting (fake personas)
 - Baiting (infected USBs)
 - Tailgating (physical access)
- Case Studies:
 - Kevin Mitnick
 - Twitter Insider Attack (2020)

Key Learnings

- People are often the weakest security link
 - Awareness and training are essential countermeasures
 - Real-world examples prove social engineering's effectiveness
-